

Curriculum vitae

Dragan Stolica

Slovenia

Dragan Stolica is a dental technician and CAD/CAM specialist from Slovenia.

Educational background:

Dragan Stolica has a degree in dental technology from the PHARMACY, COSMETICS AND HEALTH HIGH SCHOOL LJUBLJANA, LJUBLJANA (Slovenia), which he attended from 2001 – 2006. He gained first experience at an internship at the health center Dr. Adolf Drolc in Maribor.

Working experience:

In 2007 Dragan Stolica has started working as a dental technician in a private prosthetics dental laboratory and clinic - Popdent d.o.o, Maribor (Slovenia).

In 2012 Dragan became head of laboratory with all demanding activities at prosthetics with major focus on fixed prosthetics and implants.

Since 2014 Dragan Stolica has been working as a demonstrator for Ivoclar Vivadent AG with major focus on digital and CAD/CAM technology.

Dragan Stolica had further and ongoing additional educational courses for dental prosthetics in Slovenia and abroad focusing on theoretical prosthetics, dental materials, chemistry and biology.

Participation in international dental master courses such as metal-free ceramics, advanced CAD/CAM application trainings.

He is author and co-author of many international and national articles. Furthermore he is also co-author of the book Protocol.

Lecturing on topics such as metal-free ceramics and CAD/CAM-based dentistry